

EXTRADITION

We live, work, educate our children and raise our families here. We employ non-tribal members with our various enterprises and we welcome visitors to the Community.

We have every reason - - indeed a vested interest - - in ensuring that our Community is a safe and healthy place for our members, our employees and our visitors.

The Salt River Police Department has an excellent working relationship with all surrounding police agencies and jurisdictions. This is built on our mutual mission of service to the Communities we serve. This cooperative relationship extends to cases where outside police agencies seek extradition of individuals from the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community (SRPMIC) who have felony warrants from outside jurisdictions.

Extraditions are conducted with regularity at the Salt River Police Department, in accordance with SRPMIC Law. Cooperation in the presentation of required documentation of the demanding jurisdiction is an essential element to begin the process and makes for a streamlined overall procedure.

The Salt River Police Department is resolute to providing assistance to any Law Enforcement Officer or Agency upon their request and when the alleged offender is Native American. Based upon legal standards our Officers may arrest or take disposition of an investigation or conduct an extradition process.

Since 1996, we have conducted about 25 adult extraditions and 3 juvenile extraditions.
