Additionally, the MOU formalizes relationships between and among the participating agencies in order to foster an efficient and effective cohesive unit capable of addressing the violent crime, drug and gang matters on the Fort Apache Indian Reservation (FAIR). Responsibility for the conduct of the FASTTF members, both personally and professionally, will remain with the respective agency heads.

IV. PROCEDURES

A. Personnel

Continued assignment of personnel to the FASTTF will be based upon performance and will be at the discretion of the respective agency heads/supervisors. Participating agencies will, however, endeavor to make these long-term assignments due to the time required for the training, deputation and background investigation procedures. Each participating agency will periodically, and upon request, be provided with an update of the program, direction and accomplishments of the FASTTF.

Assigned personnel are available to be called back by a participating agency in case of an emergency or serious incident. They are to return to FASTTF as soon as the emergency or serious incident has been resolved.

All cases will be presented to the United States Attorney's Office for prosecutive opinion.))

Separate Contract Reimbursable Agreements (CRAs) will be executed by the FBI with each participating Agency consistent with regulations and policy.

IX. LIABILITY

Unless specifically addressed by the terms of this MOU, the parties agree to be responsible for the negligent or wrongful acts or omissions of their respective employees, to include responsibility for damages resulting from the use of any government owned vehicles.

The legal representation by the United States is determined by the Department of Justice on a case-by-case basis. The FBI cannot guarantee the United States will provide legal representation to any Federal, Tribal, State, County or local law enforcement officer.

Congress has provided that the exclusive remedy for the negligent or wrongful act or omission of an employee of the United States Government, acting within the scope of his employment, shall be an action against the United States under the Federal Tort Claim Act (FTCA), 28 U.S.C. Section 1346 (b), Sections 2671-2680.

For the limited purpose of defending claims arising out of FASTTF activity, state, county, local, or tribal law enforcement officers who have been specially deputized and who are acting within the course and scope of their official duties and assignments pursuant to this MOU, may be considered an "employee" of the United States Government as defined in 28 U.S.C. Section 2671. See 5 U.S.C. Section 3374 (c) (2).

Under the Federal Employees Liability Reform and Tort Compensation Act of 1988 (commonly known as the Westfall Act), 28 U.S.C. Section 2679 (b) (1), the Attorney General or his designee may certify that an individual defendant acted within the scope of his employment at the time of the incident giving rise to the suit. Id., 28 U.S.C. Section 2679 (d) (2). If the United States is substituted as defendant, the individual employee is thereby protected from suits in his official capacity.

If the Attorney General declines to certify that an employee was acting within the scope of the employment, "the employee may at any time before trial petition the court to find and certify that the employee was acting within the scope of his office or employment." 28 U.S.C. Section 2679 (d) (3).

Liability for any negligent or willful acts of FASTTF employees, undertaken outside the terms of this MOU will be the sole responsibility of the respective employee and agency involved.

Liability for violations of federal constitutional law rests with the individual federal agent or officer pursuant to Bivens v. Six Unknown Named Agents of the Federal Bureau of Narcotics, 403 U.S. 388 (1971) or pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Section 1983 for state and local officers or cross-deputized federal officers.

Both state and federal officers enjoy qualified immunity from suit for constitutional torts "insofar as their conduct does not violate clearly established statutory or constitutional rights of which a reasonable person would have known." Harlow v. Fitzgerald, 457 U.S. 800 (1982).

FASTTF officers may request representation by the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) for civil suits against them in their individual capacities for actions taken within the scope of employment. 28 C.F.R. Sections 50.15, 50.16. An employee may be provided representation "when the actions for which representation is requested reasonably appear to have been performed within the scope of the employee's employment and the Attorney General or his designee determines that providing representation would otherwise be in the interest of the United States." 28 C.F.R. Section 50.15 (a).

A FASTTF officer's written request for representation should be directed to the Attorney General and provided to the Chief Division Counsel (CDC) of the FBI division coordinating the FASTTF. The CDC will then forward the representation request to the FBI's Office of the General Counsel (OGC) together with a Letterhead Memorandum concerning the factual basis for the lawsuit. The FBI OGC will then forward the request to the Civil Division of DOJ together with an agency recommendation concerning scope of employment and Department representation. 28 C.F.R. Section 50.15 (a)(3).

If a FASTTF officer is found to be liable for a constitutional tort, he/she may request indemnification from DOJ to satisfy an adverse judgement rendered against the employee in his/her individual capacity. 28 C.F.R. Section 50.15 (c) (4). The criteria for payment are substantially similar to those used to determine whether a federal employee is entitled to DOJ representation under 28 C.F.R. Section 50.15 (a).

X. DURATION

This MOU shall remain in effect until terminated as specified below. Continuation of this MOU shall be subject to the availability of necessary funding. This agreement may be modified at any time by written consent of all involved agencies. Modifications to this MOU shall have no force and effect unless such modifications are reduced to writing and signed by an authorized representative of each participating agency.

This agreement may be terminated at any time by any of the participating agencies, including the FBI. A participating agency may withdraw from this agreement any time after one year from execution by providing written notice of its intent to withdraw to all other participating agencies. Upon the termination of the FASTTF and the MOU, all equipment will be returned to the supplying agencies.
